Hi Kaye,

I hope you are having a good new year, and everything at the closing closet is going well. It's crazy to think I was at my internship a year ago, and now I'm receiving news about graduate school. I first wanted to again, thank you for all of your support throughout this process. I have currently applied to U of M and MSU, my top two choices and I'm still working on the other applications. But I'm pleased to announce that I have been admitted to BOTH, MSU and U of M!!!! Words can't express how happy I am and amazed I was able to be accepted into some of the top ranked Social Work programs! I received the news about MSU on Tuesday, and yesterday I received the news about U of M. Now comes the time for me to make the decision where to go, but I'm strongly thinking about U of M, since it's the #1 school in the country. Thank you again for all of your support. I hope this news brightens your day. I can't wait to keep in touch throughout the process and let you know about my decision. I hope you have a nice weekend!

Best Wishes,
Elena Flores
